

Week 11, November 18
Literature Circles

Reading:

During the first few weeks of class you will form a literature group and choose a young adult novel to read and discuss as a group. Read that book for this class. Also bring in a picture book that extends one theme in your young adult novel.

Assignment:

Reflection 2: Using literature in the classroom. Reflect on whether and how you would use your novel in the classroom.

Written analysis of video tape for building community through reading and writing